Position Title: Minister of Missions, Evangelism and Social Justice

Classification: Full-time

Reports to: Executive Director

FBCLG is a intergenerational community that is growing and moving boldly into its future. We are rooted in tradition, growing in innovation and transforming lives as we meet the needs of God's people in real-time.

The vision for First Baptist Church of Lincoln Gardens is based on the following guiding principles:

- We are all born in the image and likeness of God and God is internal to us. Therefore, we should hunger and strive to move deeper into a life of the divine.
- Without abandoning our rich past, new approaches are required to attain the higher level God has for us.
- We want disciples to go beyond the limits of merely practicing religion and move toward a radical relationship with our Redeemer.
- Operating in sound theology and honoring biblical traditions, our ministries will span the gamut of the needs of God's people with the intention of helping disciples live in their divinity.
- From conversations among single Christians to marriage ministry retreats to youth explosions, God has called FBCLG to innovate. That means we are an intergenerational community that is growing and moving boldly into its future and transforming lives as we meet the needs of God's people in real-time.

Position Summary: The Minister of Missions, Evangelism and Social Justice works with the Senior Pastor to enable the church to focus on the Great Commission, assist in assessing the needs within the church family and community and developing programs/ministries to meet those needs. Committed to the calling of Jesus Christ as they are to their professional responsibilities. The person will be required to provide authentic, transformational worship experiences that connect people's everyday lives to God. Adhoc projects may be assigned by the Senior Pastor and/or Executive Director as is determined by the needs of the ministry.
